School Meals
Stamford Public Schools & Chartwells School Dining Services are approved to serve free breakfast and lunch to all children 18 and younger for the remaining months of 2020 as federal funding allows.

In School:
For Breakfast, elementary and secondary students pick up their Grab & Go meals at school entrances to be eaten in their classrooms*. For lunch, meals for elementary school students are delivered and eaten in their classrooms. Middle and high school students pick up and eat their Grab & Go meals in the cafeteria and common areas to allow for social distancing.
*Westhill students grab & go breakfast will be available in the cafeteria.

Hybrid Model Students will have an opportunity to bring home meals for the next day.

Distance Teaching and Learning Academy students (or parents/guardians of DTLA students) may pick up their meals Monday through Friday at the following Grab & Go locations:
- Crooman Middle School, 11 W. North Street, 2:30–4:30 pm
- Rippowam Middle School, 381 High Ridge Road, 4:30–6:30 pm
- Rogers International School, 202 Blachley Road, 4–6pm

On Friday, DTLA students/parents/guardians can pick up as many as 3 breakfasts and 3 lunches. Monday through Thursday, 1 breakfast and 1 lunch will be provided per child. Meals can only be picked up for your own children and at only one location per day. Please contact your child’s school if you have questions regarding the school’s meal serving plan. If you have questions regarding the meal pickup locations for the Distance Teaching and Learning Academy students, you may email Audrey Way at away@stamfordct.gov or call 203-977-1177.
